CLASS OF 1978

Class president Brian Snediker led the senior class in the traditional movement of the tassel from right to left.

Mrs. Doris Curtis and Mrs. Virginia Hart, teachers chosen by the class, placed gold honor cords around the shoulders of thirteen seniors who graduated with honors and double cords around the six who received high honors.

The senior class waited for the procession to begin the march onto Don Drumm Field for the commencement ceremony.

GRADUATES 391

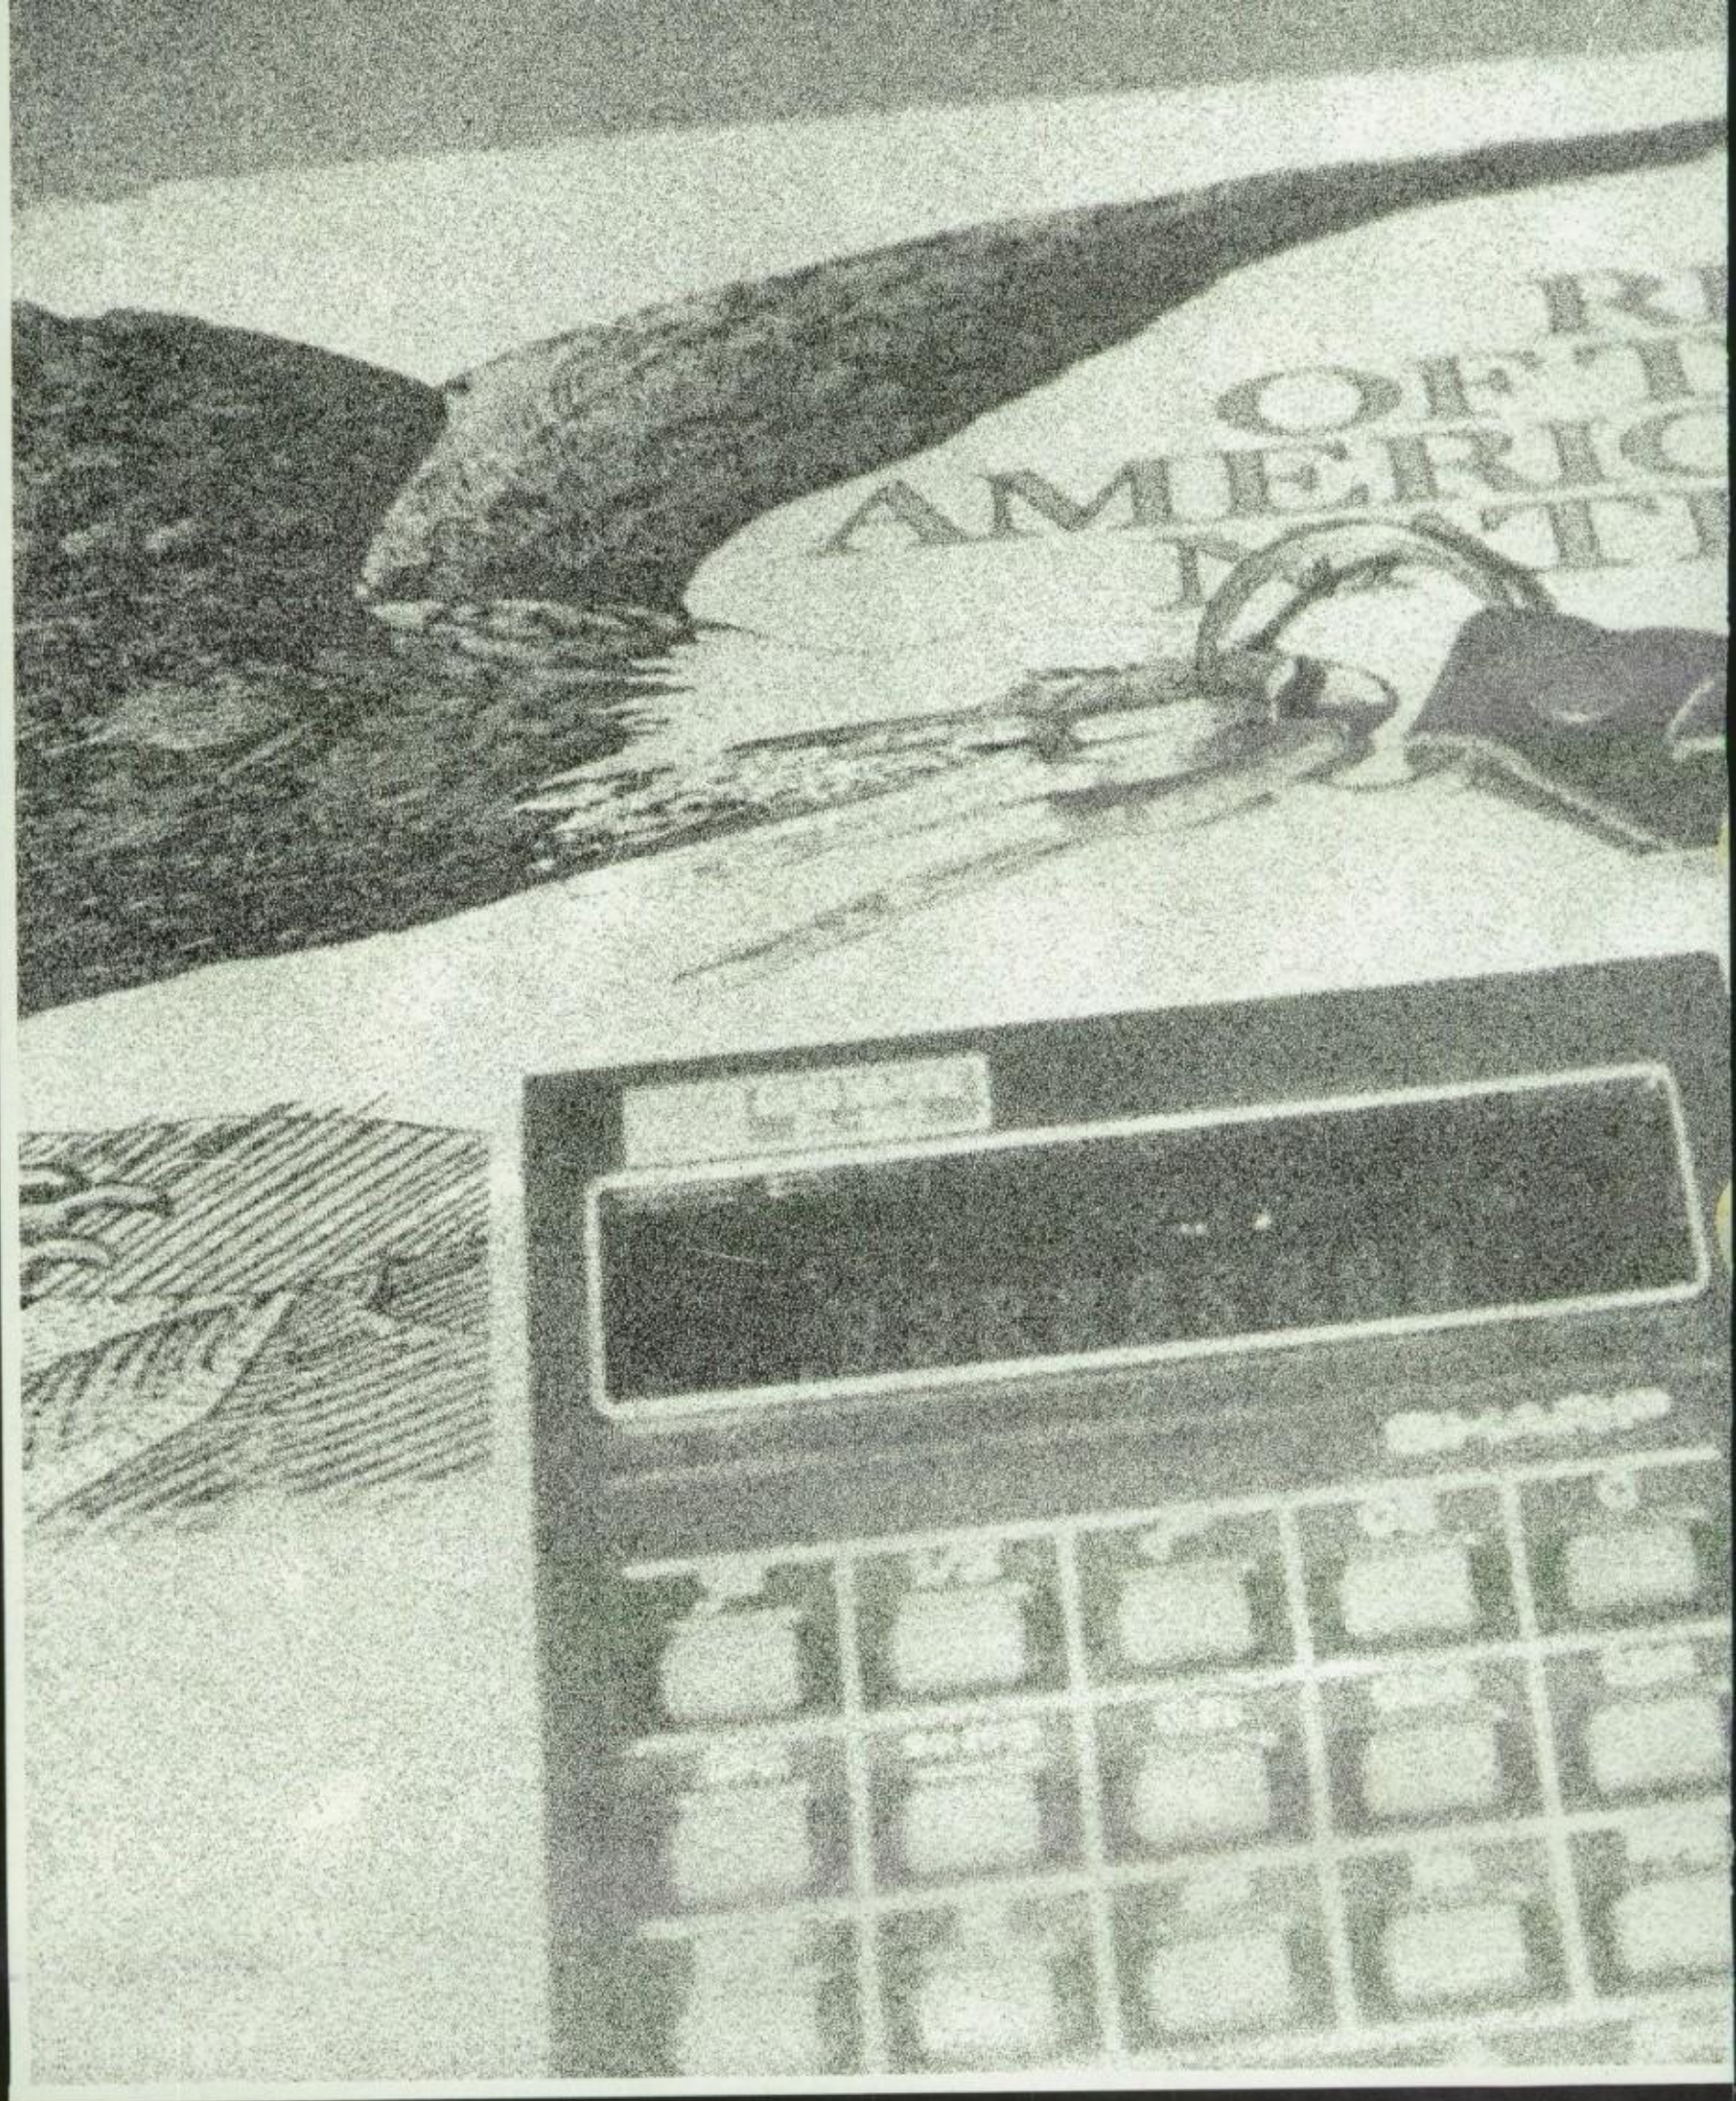

Sue Dixon and Randy Graves performed "Graduation Day," a song written by them for the '78 senior class.

Three hundred and ninety-one seniors of the class of 1978 were graduated June 4 in commencement exercises at Don Drumm Field. Following tradition, the junior class president, Pat Hukill, led the procession. Roy Ritter, president of National Honor Society, gave the invocation. Following a welcome by senior class president Brian Snediker and a number played by the band, Mr. Louis Bett, principal and Mr. Jack Powell, vice principal presented diplomas to the class. Each girl received a white rose, the class flower, with her diploma. Beginning a new tradition the senior class stood as a group and moved their tassels to the left side of their caps to indicate graduation.

The senior class marched onto the field to the traditional music, "Pomp and Circumstance."

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING AROUSED SPIRIT

Queen Candidates were Dee Dee Harper, Betsy Chorpenning, Mara Lee Ash, Diana Pickering, Theresa Gwinn.

Miss DeeDee Harper was crowned Homecoming Queen.

A variety of activities highlighted Homecoming week. Monday was Unity Day, and the students dressed up to demonstrate school pride. Tuesday was the Popcorn Eating Contest and Rock Painting competition. Wednesday was Poster Day and Thursday was Switch Day when the students dressed up in clothes of the opposite sex. Friday included a Pep Assembly and the game against Upper Arlington's Golden Bears.

The week's activities concluded on Saturday evening at the Homecoming Dance, "Nights Are Forever," held at the Betsy Mills.

Sophomore Randy Stacy participated in the Popcorn Eating Contest.

Juniors combined their art talents to win the Rock Painting Contest.

Seniors came up with the winning float.

SENIOR CLASS PERFORMS

Lionel (Dave Pioli) explained his newest findings to Sir Reginald Roots (Steve Fessler)

Miss Thistle (Leslie Daniels) tried to win Sheik Ali's (Tom Matheney) love.

Cravat (Loren Bawn) explained to Marigold (MaryBeth Miller) the reasons for the Sheik's stealing the girls.

"DON'T BLOW THE WHISTLE"

Helen (Kim Bett), June (Carol Haas), and Lisa (Sue Knight) felt left out because the Sheik didn't capture them.

Rusty (Brenda Nelson) and Dusty (Nannette Lennington) disguised themselves as young men to escape the Sheik.

Although the Senior Class play had a small cast, only fifteen members, it proved to be successful. Its three performances grossed almost $700 to be used toward the Senior Boat Dance, the Senior Breakfast, and other senior activities throughout the year.

The play "Don't Blow The Whistle," a mixture of comedy and wild hysteria, was set somewhere in the desert and the action centered around a young oil-rich Sheik (Tom Matheny), who needed several wives. He kidnaped three young American tourists to be his wives, but faced trouble when they escaped. He employed the services of Sir Reginald Roots, (Steve Fessler), a retired British officer writing his memoirs in the desert. Adding to the confusion were Reginald's eighteen year old man-crazy daughter (Marybeth Miller), her bumbling fiance Lionel (Dave Pioli), a CIA agent disguised as a snake charmer, Reginald's starry-eyed secretary Miss Thistle (Leslie Daniels), and the distinguished butler (Loren Bawn) who doubled as a swinging single and was responsible for Reginald's success as an investigator. In the closing act the Sheik found his American girls, but also found his true love, a beautiful Arabian Princess (Jeannie Amash). The upbeat ending found all the main characters pairing off to live happily ever after.

JUNIORS STAGE CABARET

Cabaret, the theme for the Jr. Class Talent Show, means a restaurant or café with dancing and singing as entertainment. To achieve this setting the Juniors turned the stage into a Cabaret, complete with tables, a bar, waiters, and a bartender. Seventeen acts provided the entertainment for the "Cabaret" including a variety of singing and dancing routines, as well as comic skits.

Kathy Hewitt, a lady of the evening, approached Bobby Burke, M.C.

No Cabaret would be fit without a line of high kicking dancing girls. Denise McDaniels, Jane Kelso, and Cindy Thrash filled the part.

Mary Stoodt and April Abbott were a pair of draculas in a skit called "Monster Mash."

Todd Balfour, David Beardsley, Gene Hollins and Dale Holdren performed a Monty Python's "Rich Man" sketch in which each of the well-to-do men tried to out do the others with tales of their childhood poorness.

Besty Blair played the part of a young girl whose only friend was a fly.

Kevin Kelly playing the harmonica and John Goettge playing a guitar joined Adele Ford in singing "Will the Circle Be Unbroken."

COAL STRIKE

The longest coal strike in the history of the U.M.W. had many effects on the community. Due to depleted coal supplies, area businesses had to cut back on their energy consumption. Many stores cut their hours, and others reduced lighting by turning off many unnecessary lights, such as neon lights. Factories combined work shifts in another effort to conserve energy.

At M.H.S. dwindling coal supplies resulted in inconveniences and cancellations. One activity, The All School Play, was cancelled. Early morning baseball practices and all late afternoon and evening school activities were cancelled. Corridors were darkened to conserve energy, temperatures were maintained at 68 F, and heaters were turned off at 2:15 pm.

Although the 109 day coal strike had many effects on the community Marietta adapted well to the energy curtailment.

In many parts of the building only every fifth light burned.

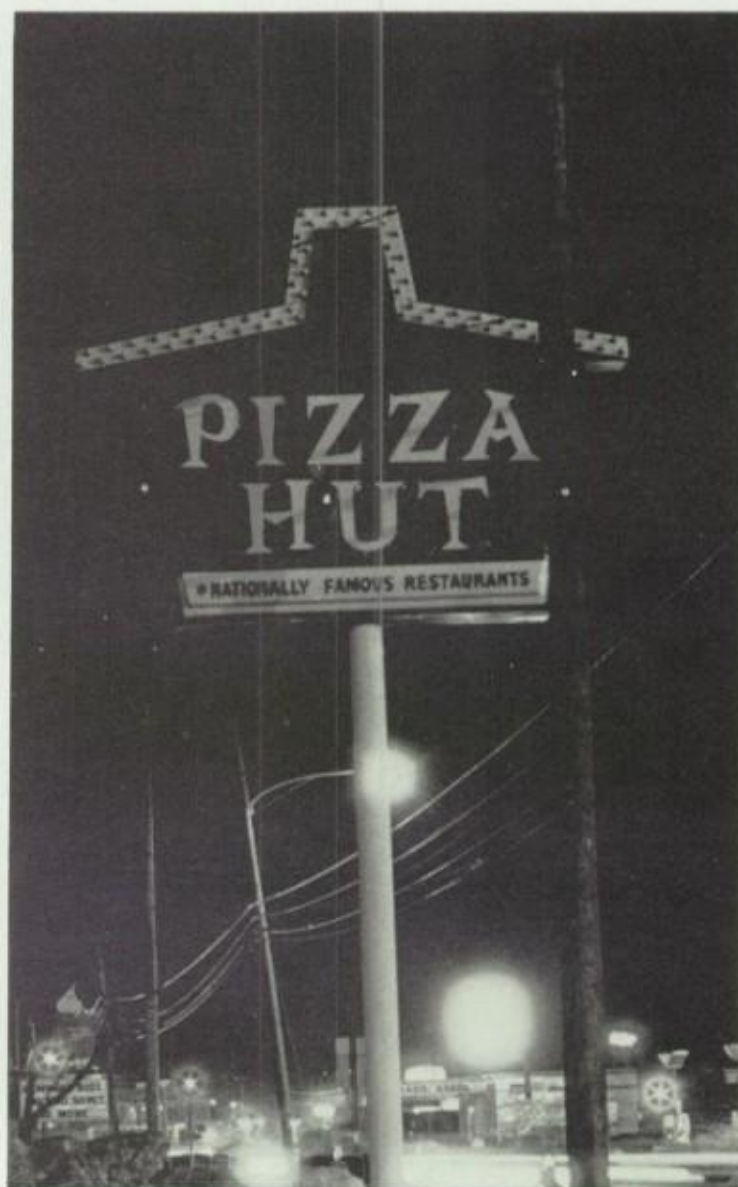

Due to the coal strike downtown was darkened.

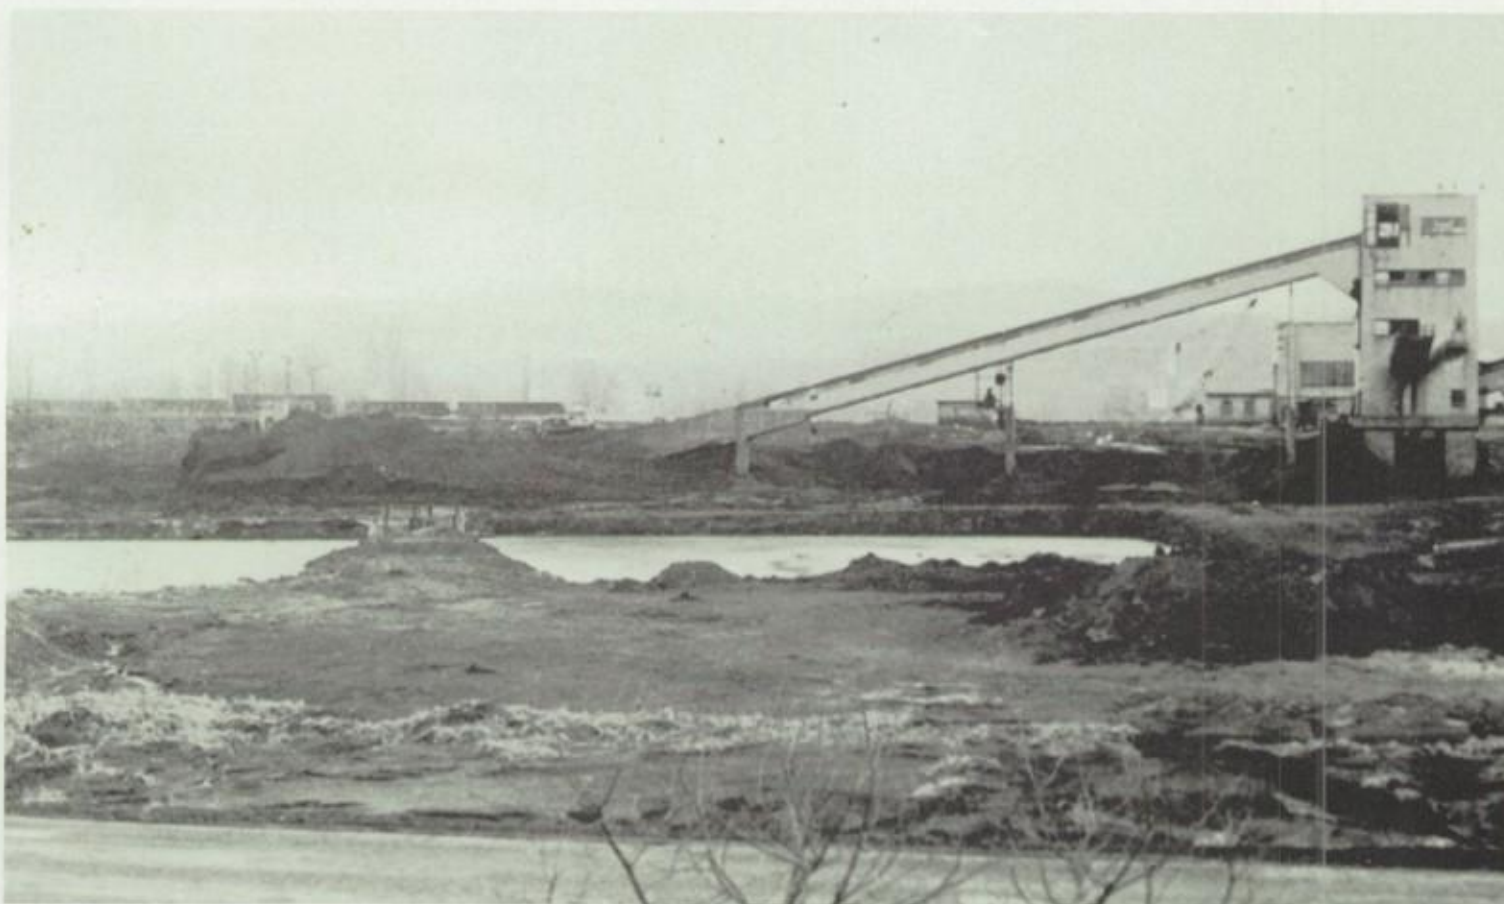

AFFECTS COMMUNITY

Many stores displayed their energy conservation.

Some were more obvious than others.

The coal strike caused depleted coal supplies in many power stations.

JUNIOR CLASS PRESENTS

The Junior Class presented the Junior-Senior Prom "Southern Nights." In keeping with the theme, decorations provided a southern garden atmosphere. Along the gym walls, tables covered with white cloths were decorated with potted plants of yellow and orange marigolds, blue asters, and white petunias. Against the front wall, the thrones for the king and queen were set among artificial palm trees and more potted plants. Pastel streamers hung from the ceiling. In the lobby wrought iron furniture provided a place for relaxation. Throughout the evening couples danced to the sounds of "7 Miles High."

Last year's Queen Betsy Chorpenning and King Frank Zide crowned the new queen and king.

Denise McDaniel and Jon Shuler reigned during prom '78.

"SOUTHERN NIGHTS"

A. Mr. and Mrs. Bett served as chaperones.

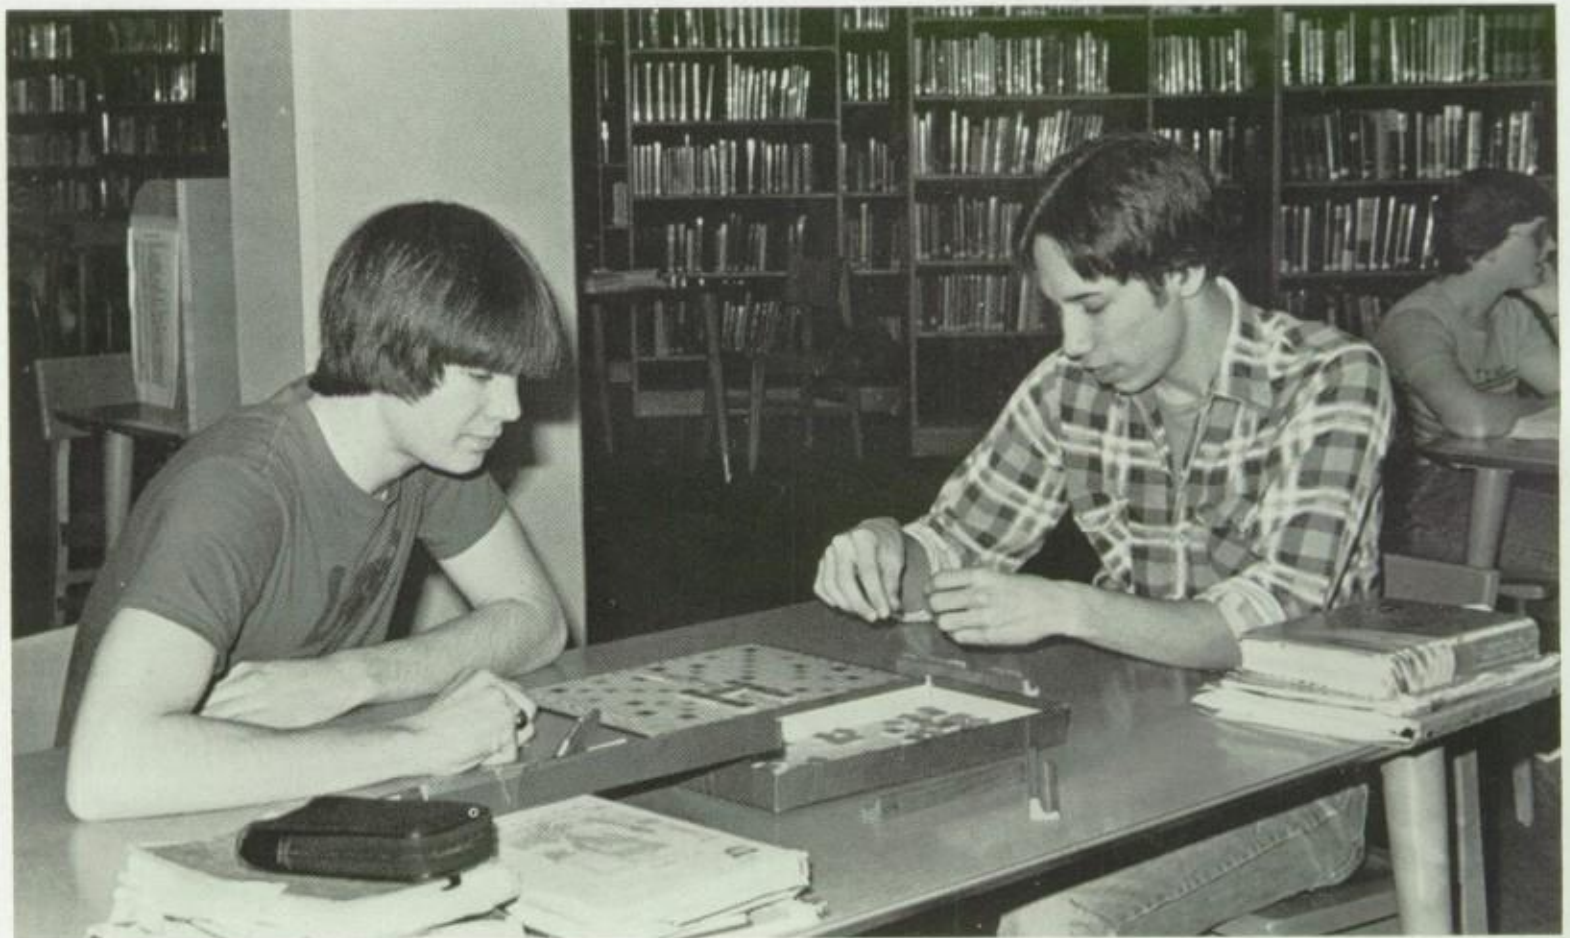

B. Sue Dixon and Mark Newman were among the 230 who attended.

C. Brenda Malone and Joey Zide were queen and king candidates.

IN C.O.L.

The Tigers were an inexperienced team with only two members, Chris Whraff and Joe Weber, who had ever seen varsity action in preceding seasons. Despite this handicap the Tigers managed a 11-9 record and a second-place standing in the C.O.L. At one point it appeared the Tigers had a good chance of winning the C.O.L. title. They first took the lead when they played Zanesville at home. The Tigers won the game 74-66. This gave them sole possession of first place in the C.O.L. race.

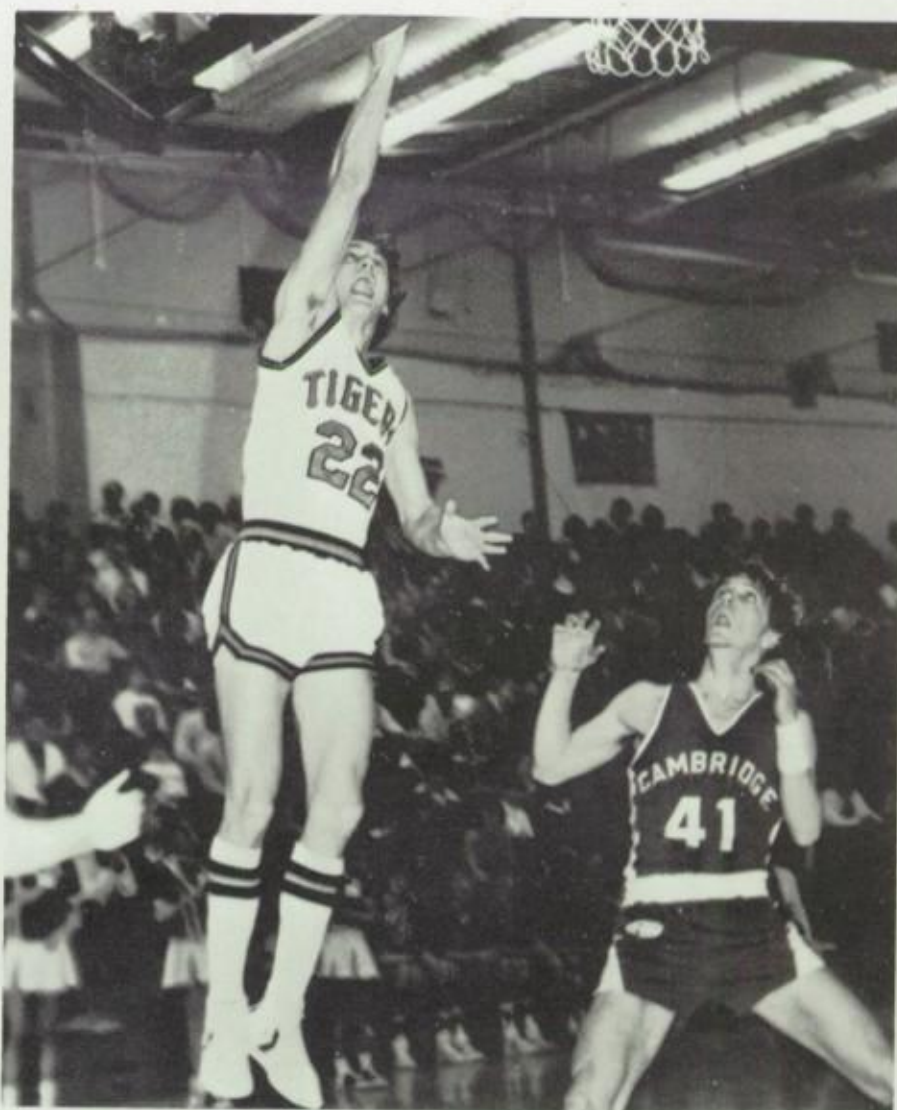

The Tigers held the lead for more than a month, during which they were hampered by game cancellations caused by inclement weather. These game cancellations caused nearly a four-week layoff. After games resumed, they never regained the momentum, losing three out of five games. This cold streak resulted in the loss of the C.O.L. championship.

Jeff Stafford played strong defense for the Tigers all season, and was also top offensive rebounder.

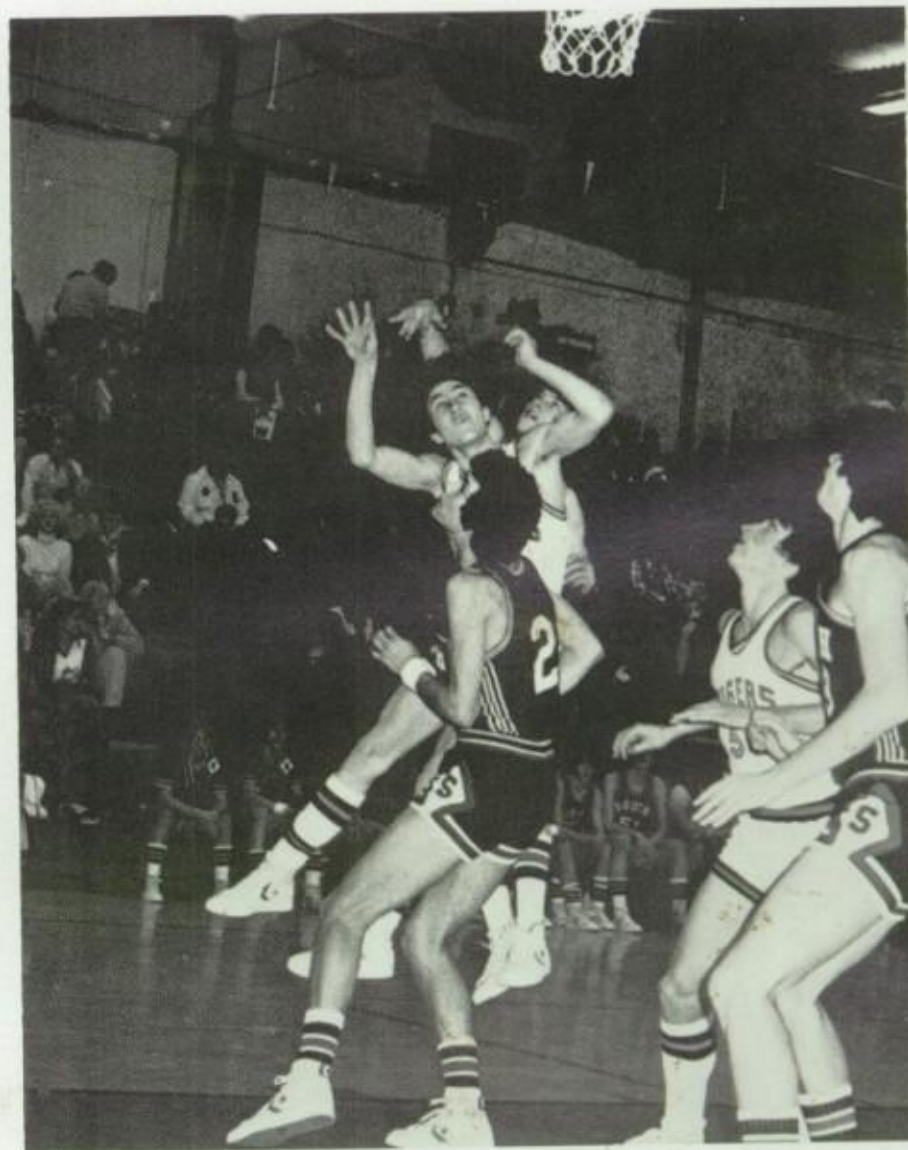

Although playing mostly J.V., Joe Zide often came off the bench to help post a Tiger varsity victory.

Junior Bill Ross was named to the Class AAA all S.E. Ohio District Team.

J.V.'S FINISH ON WINNING SLATE

During a time out, Coach Spittler planned strategy with the team.

The Girl's J.V. Basketball team compiled a seasonal record of 15-0. The team consisted of ten sophomores and one junior. As a highlight, the team beat Lancaster 25-26 in double overtime.

BASEBALL SHARES C.O.L.

Winning their first four games of the season, the varsity baseball team quickly took the lead in the C.O.L. However, in one week they lost five games in a row, which caused them to lose the league lead. Near mid-season behind the pitching of left-hander Todd Brockmier and right-handers Don Dutton and Jim Angert the Tigers rallied to recapture the lead in the C.O.L. The team stayed in first until the final game of the year, which they lost to Lancaster in a 1-0 two-hitter pitched by Brockmier. They finished their regular season tied for first place in the C.O.L. with a 15-6-1 overall record.

The days come and go, but they say nothing, and if we do not use the gifts they bring, they carry them as silently away. — Emerson

I wish to thank each member of the staff who helped with the production of ORIAN 78. A special thanks to Mrs. Cline for her patience and guidance, Ellis Studios, Mel Samples of the Image, and all the patrons who supported the book. Thanks also go to Caroline Beidler for the use of her photographs on the opening and closing pages and to Art Smith, who with Caroline, helped me during the summer to finish the book.

Sincerely,
Anne Hill
